Back in Romania!

We are very glad to be back in Brasov. We arrived back to our Brasov home on the 16th of March after attending the Pastor's and Missionary Conference in Texarkana. Kim, Amy, and I have been busy unpacking and getting ready for our Pastor, Brother Brent Summerhill and his family who will be arriving to visit on the 22nd of this month. We look forward to their visit. The work here has been doing well under the leadership of our National Pastors and workers during our absence.

In January

Brother Brent Summerhill and I had the privilege of attending the World Wide Missions Conference hosted by Westwood Baptist Church in Winterhaven Florida. Brother Brent was the featured speaker for the conference. We greatly enjoyed our time in Florida. I had the privilege to speak at 60th Street Baptist Church in their Mission's Conference and at 30th Ave Baptist Church in St. Petersburg. I also visited with Campbell Station Baptist Church.

February and March

The last of February and the first of March, I was blessed to participate in the Macedonian Missionary Training Seminar at Faith Baptist Church in North Little Rock, AR. The Seminar was hosted by Faith Baptist NLR with the help of several area churches and directed by Bro. Lynn Raburn. I enjoyed not only attending this year, but also serving as one of the speakers and teachers. This was a wonderful time of study and fellowship with fellow Missionaries and Pastors.

Revival Meeting

Also in March I had the opportunity to preach a Revival meeting at Gethsemane Baptist Church in Walnut Ridge Arkansas. It was a blessed time of fellowship, singing and praising the Lord.

Prayer Requests

Our daughter Suzanna who stayed behind to begin college.

Pray for the souls in Romania to be saved.
